NO TIME FOR INSOMNIA

We can get very busy and preoccupied with preparations for Christmas, both secular and sacred. Often, at the bombardment of advertising and "holiday specials" of every kind, from store and Internet sales to Christmas specials on TV and "holiday" parties, we push the peaceful and reflective preparations of Advent to a back burner. Then we get exhausted and sometimes resentful of all that has somehow piled on top of our usual busy lives.

We need to slow down, and perhaps we can eliminate some of the more extraneous parts of this celebration. Do we really need to put lights on our houses, which is time-consuming, and will require taking down again, sometimes too long after the Christmas season has passed? Do we really need all the decorations we put around the house, or would a lovely Christmas tree, a crèche, and some poinsettias do? Do we need hundreds of cookies, or would a few dozen do? Does everyone really need multiple presents, or would one per person do?

Think about how much better this time would be if we could slow down, read, and ponder a scripture reading each day, and not be in such a tizzy that we cannot get a good night's rest. Today's urging to "stay awake" does not mean to toss and turn all night pondering the "to do" list and wondering if and how we will get it all done.

New Year's Resolution?

As we begin the new Liturgical Year, now is as good a time as any to evaluate how our spiritual life is going. Do I make time to "be with the Lord" in prayer? Have I been successful in praying 10 (or more) minutes a day? If not, can I start today? Do I make an effort to spend quality time with my family and other loved ones? If you don't make these things a priority, other things will easily fill your day.

If you're too busy to pray, then you're too busy.

The offer is still open. Do you have a prayer experience or any other "brush with God" you would like to share with us to show others that a relationship with Jesus is not only possible but necessary? We'd love to hear from you. Send an e-mail to Anne: ahashimoto@dsj.org.

Catholic Q & A

Q: In the early years of Christianity, along with the books of our New Testament, there were many Scriptures which are called non-canonical and are not in our Bible. Who decided, and when, which books were to be in the New Testament Bible?

A: Theoretically, the answer is clear and relatively simple. We believe that, under the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit, the living church gradually discovered which of the many sacred writings of very early Christianity were to be in the “canon.” The Greek word cannon, in this context, means a norm or standard. The biblical canon, then, constitutes those books which were inspired by God, and which were believed to constitute the norm or rule for Christian faith and moral life.

Many letters, Gospels and other writings circulated among the early churches. Various lists or canons surfaced, and Christians eventually recognized certain Scriptures as normative, that is, reflecting Christian faith and presenting a model or guiding standard for any authentic Christian church. By about the year 400, popes and councils had endorsed a basic list. Certain confusions remained, however, all the way up to the Council of Trent, which in 1546 finally defined those books to be recognized as the church’s sacred, canonical Scriptures.

It sounds easy. In reality the process was not at all so simple and neat. For one thing, a number of supposedly important books were just “lost.” The letter of his own that Paul mentions in 1 Corinthians 5:3, and a document containing quotations from Jesus in Aramaic, supposedly written by the apostle Matthew, simply disappeared somewhere along the line. Others encountered much opposition, partly because some origin or presumed connection with the apostles was considered essential for acceptance. Even way back then, leading Christian scholars questioned whether Hebrews and Revelation were really written by Paul and John respectively, thus casting doubt on their apostolic origin.

Complicating things further was the fact that numerous changes and additions were made after the original forms of the Gospels were written. Sometimes these came from sayings of Jesus that were passed down orally well into the second century.

The story of the woman taken in adultery (John 8), for example, was most probably inserted into the fourth Gospel about 100 years after the Gospel was first composed; in other words, not too much before the year 200. No wonder some of the great early fathers of the church differed among themselves about which books should be on the canonical list.

Stewardship Intention Cards

Thank you to all who have turned in your stewardship cards. This greatly helps us to budget for next year's programs. If you didn't receive one in the mail, or if you forgot to bring it, please fill-out one that may be found in the pews or the vestibule. You may put it in the collection basket or send it to the parish office.

BRING JOY!

Once again our St. Vincent de Paul chapter is hosting a toy drive to help Sacred Heart Community Services reach their goal of helping 6,200 low income children in our area have a joyful Christmas.

Volunteers will be outside after most Masses the weekends of Nov. 26-27 & Dec. 3-4 to answer any questions & to assist you in your selection of an appropriate tag.

Please return all unwrapped gifts to the church or office by Sunday, Dec. 11th.

We will also have gift tags from Real Options, a crisis pregnancy center-your donation will help with prenatal care & could save a life.

Thank you for your generosity!

Catholic Roadmap

It is the season of food barrels and bell ringers. They remind us we have neighbors needing help. As you drop off your contribution consider also mailing a check to the Food Bank, Saint Vincent de Paul or Sacred Heart Community Center. Many of the families who receive those beautiful boxes of food for Christmas also need help this winter. In our busy lives it is so easy to forget.

Sacred Scripture Study

Jesus said, “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood.” Some say they’re merely symbols of remembrance. Others say they’re really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can’t explain how that’s possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass – but why?

Acclaimed author and scholar Dr. Brant Pitre will tackle those questions and more in Lectio: Eucharist, Discovering the Mass in the Bible. In ten sessions, YOU will open Sacred Scripture and deepen your understanding of the mystery and wonder that is the Eucharist – and how it will transform your life.

All are welcome, especially first timers to a Bible study!

Morning group: Mondays 10am – 12pm. Please contact Donna Holt, phone 408-371-3682 goodsamnurse@gmail.com

Evening group: Tuesdays 7-8:45pm. Please contact Terry G, tgetti@aol.com text: 408.497-9276

Children’s Liturgy of the Word Prayer Leaders Needed

Do you love children and helping them learn how to worship God in the Mass? Consider being a prayer leader for Children’s Liturgy of the Word! Prayer leaders assist children to participate in the Mass at an age appropriate level, and prepare them to be a part of the community. If you or someone you know is interested in being a prayer leader for Children’s Liturgy of the Word, please contact Christina Fenn (cfenn@dsj.org).

What is Children’s Liturgy of the Word?

Children’s Liturgy of the Word is for kids (3-7 years old) to participate in the Mass at an age appropriate level. During the 9:30am Mass, children are invited to the chapel to listen to the Word at their level, reflect on the readings, and pray the prayers of the faithful – just like the assembly! Children’s Liturgy of the Word is not a class session or a teaching time – but a time for children to fully and actively participate in the liturgy. Please pray for Children’s Liturgy of the Word prayer leaders, and all of the young disciples of our parish!

Exploring Aging Options

Have you started thinking about how you or your loved ones want to spend your older years? If you have, you may be asking yourself questions such as: How do I pay for care and how much does it cost? Will I and/or my parents be physically strong enough to take care of myself/themselves? If I am not, where do I go? Who can help me? How do I maintain my independence? How can I ensure I am able to stay in my home? How can I help my loved ones cope?

Catholic Charities now has an Elder Care Line available to assist you in navigating through different scenarios, and choices that come with aging as well as the services and resources available to aide you on your journey. Catholic Charities Elder care line offers confidential support, encouragement, and referrals for elder care service needs. Our professional elder care specialists understand the needs of seniors as well as their loved ones and offer a host of services and support when you need it most. Our services range from in Home Care Services and Adult Activities Centers to dementia care and coordination of services to fit your needs. Our team will help you think through options and create solutions that fit your individual and family needs. Contact us today to speak to a Care Advisor: 408-831-0441
