On this day a Savior is born

Merry Christmas! We are so glad that you are here. We have been praying for you, and preparing in hopeful expectation for this Christmas to be a joyful celebration. Today, we have a special gift for you!

No matter what this last year has been like for you, our hope is that the gift of Resisting Happiness by Matthew Kelly, will renew your spirit and bring greater happiness into your life. We often find ourselves asking “Am I happy?” or “What makes me happy?” – and we hope that you can begin 2017 with an invitation to discover what makes you happy, and what might be standing in the way of your ultimate happiness.

We hope that you enjoy the book! Read it together with your family, and pass it along to friends and family once you have finished.

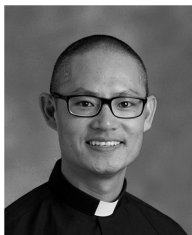

Inside the book you will have noticed a bookmark. On that bookmark are instructions for you to set up a FREE account on Formed.org. Formed.org is an online resource for audio content, ebooks, movies and even scripture studies that you can do in your home or on the go. Everyone in your house will enjoy this resource. You will even find children’s movies and books. Formed.org is paid for by the parish because we believe every parishioner, indeed everyone we come into contact with, deserves a way to encounter Christ and his teachings in every day life. It can be challenging to carve out time in your busy schedules, but we think most people sit down as a family to watch a movie in your home. Consider this resource when you’re choosing those movies. Consider downloading an ebook onto your phone to read when you have a few minutes. Listen to audio books as you do the dishes, the options are endless!

Over the next months you will see in the bulletin suggestions on what to view that week. If your family has an experience that you’d like to share, please let us know, other families might find your experience helpful.

Right now, one staff member is listening to “The true meaning of Christmas”, it is a compilation of Archbishop Fulton Sheen’s reflections on the Incarnation of Jesus mixed with Gregorian Chant and seasonal music. This is definitely a must listen for adults that want to know a little more about our history as Catholics. Why don’t you take an hour of your Christmas week and join us!

—Parish Staff

A Message From Our Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Christmas is celebrated to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, and as Christians (Christ's followers), we believe that He is the Son of God and God Himself (the 2nd person out of 3 – The Trinity).

The term "Christmas" comes from the Mass of Christ. A Mass service (Communion or Eucharist) is where Christians remember that Jesus died for us and then came back to life to give us an everlasting life. Traditionally, the "Christ-Mass" service was the only one that was allowed to take place after sunset, so people had it at midnight. Therefore, we get the name Christ-Mass shortened to Christmas. As the situation demands, the Church has been more pastoral and allows having Christmas Eve Mass prior to midnight.

One might ask, "Why do we celebrate Christmas on December 25th?" No one knows the real birthday of Jesus. No date is given in the Bible. The early Christians certainly had many arguments as to when it should be celebrated. It is true that the birth of Jesus didn't happen in the year 1 but slightly earlier, somewhere between 2 BC and 7 BC. The first recorded date of Christmas being celebrated on December 25th was in 336, during the time of the Roman Emperor Constantine (the 1st Christian Roman Emperor). Pope Julius I, a few years later from what was recorded, officially declared that the birth of Jesus would be celebrated on the 25th of December.

As we are celebrating Christmas, we can be influenced by the secular world—meaning we can easily "go with the flow." For example, as non-Christians celebrate Christmas, they may not know why they are doing so and may even want to take God out of their ordinary lives. They may downplay the meaning of Christmas, and perhaps will deliberately say "Happy Holidays" instead of "Merry Christmas." As Christians, if we don't preserve the meaning of Christmas then who will? For that reason, let us do everything we can to preserve its true meaning by deliberately greeting others with "Merry Christmas" instead of other sayings. Anything that we say other than "Merry Christmas" would not bring the essence of the day that we are celebrating.

It is due to His love that He is being incarnated to give us hope for this life and salvation to come. May we always be grateful to Jesus' love and redemption that He prepared for us through His death. May we all have a blessed Christmas with our loved ones with the zeal to spread Jesus' love to others.

God bless,

Fr. Andrew Vu Nguyen

Catholic Roadmap

Today we celebrate the great mystery that God became flesh and dwelt among us. This mystery is called the Incarnation (meaning "take on flesh"). At Christmas we proclaim that God, the very God who created all things from nothing and who is light itself, took on our humanity in order to transform us. Gather members of your family around your Nativity set to thank God for this mystery of the Incarnation and the salvation we received because Jesus was born among us. Then sing a Christmas carol. Merry Christmas! to you and your family.

Want to watch FREE Catholic movies from the comfort of your own couch? Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith at a time convenient for you? Children's Liturgy of the Word Prayer Leaders Needed

Do you love children and helping them learn how to worship God in the Mass? Consider being a prayer leader for Children's Liturgy of the Word! Prayer leaders assist children to participate in the Mass at an age appropriate level, and prepare them to be a part of the community. If you or someone you know is interested in being a prayer leader for Children's Liturgy of the Word, please contact Christina Fenn (cfenn@dsj.org).

What is Children's Liturgy of the Word?

Children's Liturgy of the Word is for kids (3-7 years old) to participate in the Mass at an age appropriate level. During the 9:30am Mass, children are invited to the chapel to listen to the Word at their level, reflect on the readings, and pray the prayers of the faithful – just like the assembly! Children's Liturgy of the Word is not a class session or a teaching time – but a time for children to fully and actively participate in the liturgy. Please pray for Children's Liturgy of the Word prayer leaders, and all of the young disciples of our parish!

The Word is Alive

Thursdays 7:15-9 pm in the Hope Room. All are welcome!

Sacred Scripture Study

Jesus said, "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood." Some say they're merely symbols of remembrance. Others say they're really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can't explain how that's possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass – but why?

Acclaimed author and scholar Dr. Brant Pitre will tackle those questions and more in Lectio: Eucharist, Discovering the Mass in the Bible. In ten sessions, YOU will open Sacred Scripture and deepen your understanding of the mystery and wonder that is the Eucharist – and how it will transform your life.

All are welcome, especially first timers to a Bible study!
