Fr. Paul Jussen, M.S.

Greetings!

For those of you who do not know me, my name is Fr. Paul Jussen, M.S. I am a newly ordained priest for the Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette. I was born, raised and lived in San Jose for most of my life until I entered religious life in 2010. I've been a Holy Family parishioner since the parish relocated to south San Jose. In fact, I was one of the first babies baptized here in 1971. My parents, Bill & Berty Jussen, were very active parishioners. They were involved in all sorts of ministries but most famously were coordinators of the "Beer Garden" during the festivals. It was a "happening" booth! German music, bratwurst, and of course good beer.

So my history at HF dates way back. I myself was involved in high school youth ministry, bible studies, and confirmation. I've been on different committees and I was on staff for a few years as an assistant for the maintenance crew.

But God had bigger plans for me. I found myself really enjoying ministering to God's people. I discerned for a while for the Diocese of San Jose and even before then, the Discalced Carmelites. My vocational discernment had a lot of twists and turns which in all honesty was very frustrating. You think God is calling you in a direction only to find out it is somewhere else. I entered the La Salette Missionaries in 2010 and that meant leaving everything behind in SJ and moving to Connecticut. Five months in, my mom passed away. Then during my novitiate year in St. Louis, my dad passed away. It was tough but they were very supportive of my vocation and I feel their presence everyday which has helped me persevere.

I made my first vows in 2012 and moved to Chicago to begin my academic studies for priesthood. I made my final vows in 2015, ordained a deacon in 2016, graduated in May 2017 with a Masters in Divinity with a concentration in biblical studies and then finally ordained a priest June 17th, 2017. It has been a long road but I couldn't be any happier in my vocation! God has blessed me with such great people including the wonderful people of HF who have been supporting and praying for me. Certainly this couldn't be possible without the grace of your prayers! My heart is always with you. I look forward to praying a Mass of Thanksgiving with you on June 25th at 9:30am.

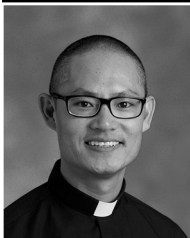

I have been assigned to Our Lady of Prompt Succor Parish in Sulphur, LA. I've been there several times and I am excited to begin my priestly ministry in Cajun country! I continue to ask for your prayers and thank you to everyone that has journeyed with me along the way. May God Bless all of you and see you soon!

Fr. Paul Jussen, M.S.

Mass of Thanksgiving & Reception

Fr. Paul Jussen will be coming to San Jose and celebrating a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, June 25th at the 9:30am Mass. There will be a reception after Mass in the community center. We encourage parishioners to bring finger food type brunch items for the reception. You may drop them off in the Community Center before Mass.

A Message From Our Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

"Praise the LORD. Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; His love endures forever." Palms 106:1

God's love is felt throughout the year; particularly our community all the more experienced God's love as we marked the end of our school academic year. It was filled with much emotion and blessings as we witnessed many of our students saying good-bye to their friends and teachers. That same spirit of love was felt at Fr. Edsil's farewell Mass and on a weekly basis when we gather around the table of our Lord.

Along with the 57 children who received First Communion and Confirmation three weeks ago; our community was also blessed with 7 adults who received their Confirmation last week. It is worthy to note that some of our confirmandi had left the Church for decades and were not wanting to receive Communion or to be confirmed; others simply did not have the opportunity, but through the grace of God and with their deep conviction in the faith after their conversion, they fought the battle well. They overcame tremendous difficulties. Now, their hearts are on fire to live the message of the Gospel and wanting to share God's love with others. Please join me in giving thanks to God and congratulate the following confirmandi:

Priscilla Ebalobo
Kathlynn Bachar
Thoai-An Le
Aubrey Alcudia
Rebecca Ravesloot
Sharon Banh
Tim Kehl

With so many beautiful experiences as we come together as a community of faith, we are truly immerse in the love of God with much gratitude. As we count our blessings as an individual, as a family or as a community, let's once again affirm this message: "The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise him." Palms 23:7

God bless,

Fr. Andrew Vu Nguyen

Small Things Count

This year, give your (senior) Dad a Father's Day that makes a real difference to him and comes from your heart: 1) Take him on a day trip, complete with picnic lunch and time to spend together. Sharing the driving is a non-threatening way for you to make sure he still drives safely. 2) Go through Dad's house with him, looking for burned-out lights, loose steps, railings, or rugs, frayed cords, broken smoke detectors, etc. and fix them together. 3) Is his laundry in the basement? Those steps can be hazardous. Find space on the main floor for the machines (stackables?). Share the cost of machines or re-plumbing with siblings. 4) Be his private chef. If he lives alone he probably eats unhealthy fast or frozen food—IF he eats. Cook a variety of nutritious single-serving meals, packaging them so he can pop them into the oven or microwave. Write cooking directions on the covering. In other words, this Father's Day, give the gift of securing your dad's safety and well being. A big hug won't hurt, either.

Village House is an interfaith shelter of hope and St. Julie’s is the current host of this women’s shelter. Consider volunteering by signing up online at the Village House website: www.villagehousesccca.com.

Holy Family will operate the shelter during November until December 6th. Helping a shift or more at one of the other churches is an opportunity to get to know the women and learn how things work before the shelter moves here. Those other churches include: : St. Julie, Cathedral of Faith, St. Timothy Lutheran. This provides great opportunities for us to gain experience and use your gifts and talents.

Many volunteer opportunities are available for individuals or groups such as laundry, meals, intake and overnight, driving, and medical. You can see where they need help on the Village House website. Sign-ups for these sites are opened before each church’s sponsorship begins.

The Mass

Our Offering

During the offertory chant, the rite directs for the preparation of the table. Every time I hear this, I think back to my childhood when my mother directed me to “set the table” on special occasions. It was a privilege as each piece must be handled with care, each had a proper place, and each was placed for a particular purpose.

At each Mass members of our community are privileged to serve at the altar and prepare the sacred vessels for the presider. First is an altar cloth, on top of which is placed a corporal (a smaller square cloth with a cross embroidered on it), on top of which everything else is placed. Each priest arranges the sacred vessels slightly differently, but usually they take the following order. The paten, which holds the large altar host, is placed in the center of the corporal, near the edge of the altar. The cup or chalice holding the wine is placed on the right hand corner furthest from the edge. In our diocese the flagon, holding the rest of the wine, sits just beside the cup. The ciborium is placed on the left hand corner furthest from the edge of the altar. The Roman Missal (the presider’s book) sits off to the left, angled for the presider to be able to read from it while making the correct hand gestures.

We set the altar with special linens and sacred vessels, prepared reverently for we know they will soon hold Jesus.
