Your Rod and Your Staff

I love the 23rd Psalm. And lately, I've been thinking a great deal about the verse mentioning the rod and the staff.

I see myself as this well-fed and comfortable sheep, and then I feel a gentle prodding. It's that Shepherd again, inviting me to move along. Why? I'd fallen into self-absorption, thinking about my problems and having a little pity party.

One translation says, "with your rod and your staff you give me comfort." It's not such a comfort when the Shepherd is nudging me along with that rod. Get moving! What are you waiting for?

But it's a loving reminder, full of gentle intention. I wake up from my reverie and take a step forward.

Another translation says, "with your rod and your staff you give me courage." And I picture a tall staff at the front of the herd. I keep my eyes on the tip of that staff when I can't see the Shepherd because all these sheep are in my way, bleating.

What are the rods and staffs in my life? The clock can be a rod, booting me into the car, onto the freeway, and helping me embrace my vocation as employee. And a staff? Since I suffer from vertigo, the yellow line down the middle of the neighborhood walking path helps me stay out of other people's way. If I dig a little deeper, I notice my morning prayer is a staff—something to keep in sight as I amble through my day, bumping into other sheep and apologizing with a noise or a nod.

I hear the ringing of bells as the Shepherd guides our flock across an uneven road. I didn't notice our bells before, slung on our necks to make it easier for the Shepherd to find us if we wander far afield. It explains how God found me, hiding in this bush, when I thought I was so clever in seeking my own direction. I wasn't ready to cross that bridge, or so I thought. "You can do this," the rod behind me seems to say. The prodding doesn't hurt—well, most of the time.

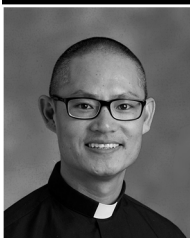

With God's rods and staffs, I shall not want.

I need these helps during the trials of life; here comes the shearer.

A Message From Our Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The academic year is coming to an end. We join with countless families to congratulate many graduates in various levels of their academic endeavors. In particular we give thanks to our Lord for using our school in leading our students to grow in love, faith, knowledge and service. As we celebrate our 8th graders' graduation on June 2nd we humbly recognize the success that our students have accomplished. 96% of our students were able to enter their choice of High School which includes Bellarmine, Nortre Dame, Archbishop Mitty and Presentation, to name a few. This is indeed a great news!

Congratulations Our Graduates

I'd like to thank Mrs. Marianne Terry and Mrs. Judy Smith for their gracious commitment to Holy Family School. They will be retired at the end of this school year. Their teaching passion, presence, kindness and love will be tremendously missed at the school. Nevertheless, they will remain active in our parish, which serves as a good consolation for knowing that they are still with our community.

May Almighty God continue to bless our community, especially to our graduates as they embark their new journey of life. May they always be filled with God's grace and love so that they will be a true disciple of Christ to others.

God bless,

Fr. Andrew Vu Nguyen

Village House Needs Volunteers

As of June 7th St. Julie's parish will be hosting the overnight shelter and will welcome any help you can offer. Thanks to St Paul's Methodist church these past weeks & all who stepped up to help!

Again, at St. Julie's is an opportunity to live your faith, through corporal acts of mercy, to be Christ's heart, hands, and voice of love. Consider volunteering by signing up online on the Village House website www.villagehousesccca.com.

Holy Family will operate this overnight Women's shelter during November ending on December 6th. Helping a shift or more at another church is a great opportunity to get to know the women and learn how things work before the shelter moves to Holy Family

Companions in Ignatian Service and Spirituality

A program that engages retired and semi-retired people, who have a desire to serve those most marginalized in our communities while deepening their own spiritual foundations. It is an endorsed work of the Jesuits. Our 10-month program begins each August in three Bay Area neighborhoods: South Bay, East Bay and San Francisco.

They are currently accepting applications for the 2017-18 program which begins with an opening retreat on Saturday, August 26th from 9am - 4pm at the Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose in Fremont. New participants will be welcomed until our program communities are filled, usually by August 15. Applications are available at: <http://www.ignatianspirituallifecenter.org/companionsapply.html>

Come and learn about this amazing program at an information session on either June 5 or 20 at Santa Clara University. For more information, please email Marcos Herrera at mlhdlhee@pacbell.net or contact Claudia Buchner - 408-529-8906.

Rotary Auction

Rotary Club of San Jose Silicon Valley will its Annual Benefit Dinner and Auction on June 24th at 5:30pm in the Community Center. They are raising money to support many San Jose non-profits. Tickets may be purchased at the door and are only $30 for a gourmet dinner and silent and live auctions with great merchandise.

Small Things Count

Strengthen your marriage and family by pigging out! Invite a few couples to your home for a potluck “TV dinner.” Set up TV trays and a buffet-style dinner, have people load up their plates, then settle in to watch and discuss an informative video. Although the topic may be serious, like communication within families, marriage as a partnership, blending families, or surviving your kids’ teen years, the video should be entertaining while fueling discussion. Be sure to stop it at intervals to let people talk about what they’ve heard. (As host, preview it and make note where to stop if there are not built-in discussion-pauses.) The informality of the situation encourages your friends to share their stories, and you’re likely to have at least as many laughs as serious comments. By the end of this couples-evening you will be full—of good food, good talk, and ideas to enrich your family life.

Catholic Roadmap

When President Donald Trump and Pope Francis met in the Vatican this past week, they expressed their shared commitment to “life, freedom of worship, and conscience”. LIFE is foremost; without it, nothing can follow. So, in our daily prayers let’s always remember the unborn babies whose mothers are considering abortion so that they may be able to continue with their journey of LIFE.

Liturgy Link

The Mass

The Liturgy of the Word

The Liturgy of the Word has many parts, as I discussed in earlier articles.

- The first reading
- The responsorial psalm
- The second reading
- The alleluia
- The gospel
- The homily

Following this is the Liturgy of the Eucharist, but between the Liturgy of the Word and The Liturgy of the Eucharist we have a small break. In that time we can “add” if necessary. You will sometimes see a speaker invited up to talk on a subject pertaining to the Mass or to the Parish. For example, you will see us at this time invite the speakers up to talk about the Annual Diocesan Appeal (ADA). It is also when we take up the collection. In this portion, you may also see anointing of the sick, baptisms, confirmations or introductions to those who will be receiving First Eucharist
